Ninety six hats were shown at the annual Spring Show of the St. John Anglican Church Restoration group on March 7th. The models ere Mesdames Harriet McBride, Rita Bennitz, Ella Spikula, Brenda Harper, Jackie Turner, Colleen Glad, and Mary Goodmurphy. Mrs. D.Q. Hamilton was commentator and Mrs. Jack Winters convener for the millinery. Mrs. Jack Bryson sold the accessories offered and Mrs. Ken. Williamson was make-up artist with Mrs. David Harrison cashier.

Assisting with the hall decorating and in serving tea throughout the show were Mesdames Doug May, Reg Bailey, Bob Ellicotte, Ruth Rigelsford, Doug Moore, and Bill Collinson. The door prize was won by Mrs. Con Duggan.

The hats of many fabrics were mostly highcrowned, some with narrow brims and others with the dipped brim. The ever-popular Breton sailor was shown as were favourite tam styles for the younger set and most attractive 'packable' hats for travelling. Grosgrain ribbon with flyaway ends was used to band many models. With the all weather coats also shown were matching reversible hats.

Motor Hotel and party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.Q. Hamilton followed where amusing small gifts were given to Bill, all referring to his ambition to build a plane.

Fun of the evening was extemporaneous speeches, each man present recalling some incident in Bill's Schreiber service.

The Official Board of St. Andrew's United Church presented him with an attache case and Mrs. Hawke with a handbag, in appreciation of their interest in church affairs. Mrs. Hawke was also entertained by a group of friends at a party in the home of Mrs. Doug Bennitz, when a set of casseroles was given to her.

Daughters Susan and Marilyn will complete their school year in Schreiber but are spending their holiday week at their new home.
