AN APPEAL BY A GIRL GUIDE

Sing a song of sadness
 A packet ful of woe
 Six and twenty Girl Guides
 Are feeling very low.
 Lost their friendly Captain
 Don't know what to do
 And Lieutenant is over worked
 She may vanish too.
 Sing a song of sadness
 A teardrop in our eye
 Still the job goes begging
 As no one will apply
 Six and twenty Girl Guides
 Are feeling very bad

Now isn't this the most awful thing
 That we have ever had
 Our Guides work hard from 6 to 8
 Every Tuesday night
 So come on Mothers
 BE PREPARED

And lets make things right.

LOCAL ASSOCIATION TO GUIDES AND BROWNIES

The regular meeting of Terrace Bay Local Association to Guides and Brownies was held Monday evening March 24 in the Community Church. Minutes were read by Mrs. G. Moore and committees reported. It was decided that a reserve Camp Fund Accounts be placed in the Guide General Account.

Mrs. M. Vanderkan and Mrs. M. Moher commented on the recent Guider-Brownie Training held in Schreiber. A request was made for Guiders. There is a shortage of leaders and any lady interested in working with the Girl Guides could call Mrs. S. Caron, 3210 for details. The annual (cont'd page 12)
