

"GAG" AIDS WORTHY CAUSES

A bit of skullduggery went on at the Terrace Bay Branch of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce to-day, but it was all in good fun, and for two worthy causes.

Last year, at the Terrace Bay Men's Curling Bonspiel Sulo Maki, self-appointed Mayor of Hurkett, started a gag that has had far reaching consequences. Sulo Maki, otherwise known as Wes Cousineau, proclaimed the Hurkett Open Golf Tournament, which actually took place this year on March 15th. Entry fees were accepted for the small sum of 39 cents.

Over two hundred cheques have come in, in various forms, such as an egg, large pieces of cardboard, and even duly written, signed and cashed, on the back of Jack Wellings shirt.

Cheques have come from as far away as the States.

Wes opened an account with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Terrace Bay, with the full consent of its manager, Mr. Terry Scott.

All proceeds will be divided evenly between the Kiwanis Crippled Children Fund, and the Canadian Diabetic Association.

Wes, or Sulo Maki, is shown making a presentation to Joe Palyga, of Port Arthur, Co-Chairman of the Easter Seal Campaign, in Port Arthur. Mr. Scott is a member of the Terrace Bay Branch of Kiwanis.

Wes thanked all Terrace Bay residents who went along with his project. Wes makes his home in Port Arthur.

Children are a comfort to parents in their old age - they also help them to reach it!

Are you up to date with OMSIP?

When you have a child or reach 21 or move to a new address or when you are newly married... To keep your OMSIP protection and to speed payment-notify within 30 days:

H.I.R.B. Health Insurance Registration Board, 2195 Yonge Street, Toronto 7.

If we are to help we need to know.

Guides "Ringette" with David Courtemanche

Sunbather: a fry in the ointment.