THE ONE THAT CAME BACK

A most unusual catch happened to a novice ice fisher in Schreiber when The One That Got Away - Came Back! Feeling the tug on the line she hauled out a beauty, took it off the hook and was admiring it, when it suddenly slithered out of her hands and down into the hole again. Sitting there bemoaning her misfortune she was astounded to see the fish leap up out of the hole again, and this time she made sure of it! There is a scientific explanation of the odd occurrence, but her friends declare, that fish decided his luck was running out and had better he be caught by a pretty angler.
