CONCERT HELD BY BLIND ORGANIST

Mr. Stanley Morton, a blind organist, held a concert at the Community Church. Mr. Morton, who is 71, travels alone by bus around various communities giving recitals. He was blinded in the Second World War. He was formerly a Church organist in Moose Jaw, Toronto and Winnipeg where he now makes his home. He is shown in photo seated at the console of the organ with C.G.I.T. member Jeanie Tychoniak acting as his assistant.
