"THE OWL'S HOOT"*VARIETY NIGHT FOR 1969

Parents and friends filled the high school auditorium on Friday, April 25, at 7.30 p.m. for the gala performance of the annual Variety Night presented by the students of Schreiber High School. A matinee was also conducted on Thursday, the 24th, for pupils and teachers of Schreiber Public School and Holy Angel's Separate Schools.

The programme opened with the Master of Ceremonies Paul Caccamo introducing the folk group selection "Bottle of Wine" and "Love is All Around Me" sung by the Grade 13 class and backed by a very effective cafe setting which put the audience in a relaxed mood. They in turn hailed Bruce Gray and Nola Fummerton who treated everyone with a guitar and vocal duet "Reason to Believe." This was closely followed by Ryan LeBlanc on another guitar joining Bruce in two numbers "If I Could" and "I'm Not Saying." Allan LeBlanc wound up the cafe scene with a most unusual and impressive drum solo.

Mr. Penner described the various vaults and presentations of the breath taking gymnastic display featuring Claire Belliveau, Bill Collinson, Tony Commisso, Albert Coutemanche, Toni Desaulniers, Bob Hiller, Katie Kastelik, Mike Spadoni, Stanley Spadoni and Barb Stefurak. These demanding demonstrations were followed by a skilful rendition at a slightly slower pace - the artful piano duet "In the Arena" by Billy and Wendy Weaver.

The choir, led by Miss Chisholm and made up of Linda Birch, Janice Cluett, Marilyn Cook, Nola Fummerton, Carolyn Glad, Beverley Hamilton, Susan Harrison, Brenda Krystia, Marta Krystia, Rosemary Speziale, Sharon Smith, Cathy Stokes; and Shirley Winters next sang two well-known selections "Falling in Love" and "Old Man River."

A new feature has been added to the high school this year and the audience of "Variety Night" were treated to numerous hair raising and impressive demonstrations of self defence involving judo and karate led by Mr. Gouthro (also the general director of "Variety Night") and performed by the self defence team of Laura Bittolo, Verna Daley, Elizabeth Hayes Rosemary McParland, Linda Nesbitt, Cathy Stokes, David Borutski, Lonnie Connelly, Dave Drake, Bill Gellert, Herb Holmes, Joseph Maronese, and Tom McGrath. - continued on page 14
