with runner-up John Ruzyski. Low hole winner Trent Desaulnier and high hole Jim Corrigan.

This was a nine hole tournament with an adult in each foursome.

Bill Hanley in charge of Junior golf activities formed a committee including Junior members who will assist in organizing future tournaments.

The ladies and men's weekly twilights also began last week. These tournaments have a very small entry fee from which prizes are purchased.

The competition of these tournaments especially the mixed two ball foursomes are a lot of fun and enjoyed by both the ladies and men.

Handicap record cards for ladies, men and juniors are now available. Anyone interested in knowing their handicap should immediately start turning in cards.

Cut off date for last years members is only a few days away. New members can purchase this year's membership at the Club House.

We recently read a bit of editorial clap-trap about how the law, as set forth in our statutis, should be up held. No mention was made of moral law or the wee small voice of conscience. For instance - if you sell a commodity at a price and people pay in good faith then you suddenly decide to give the commodity away at no cost aren't you morally bound to make a refund to those who have already paid?

Small boy to small girl: "Are you the opposite sex or am I?"

Mothers-in-law are like seeds. You don't need them but they come with the tomato.
