TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Johnny is a contented, healthy baby, eight months old. Nothing seems to ruffle his customary good nature. He needs to be adopted so he will grow up in a loving permanent home. Johnny's background is Irish, French and Negro and he has very dark eyes, brown curly hair and medium brown skin. He is quite responsive and alert, turning his head quickly at the sound of his name. He recognizes familiar faces readily and loves to be held and cuddled. When strangers are around he becomes quiet while he surveys them for long periods. Young as he is, this little fellow has had several moves. Now, like Charlie Brown's friend Linus, he seeks security in a treasured blanket which he bunches up beside his face before he can go to sleep. To inquire about adopting Johnny please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For general information about adoption ask your local Children's Aid Society.

Martin's Church Hall at 8 p.m. on Sunday May 25. Every body welcome!
