CANADIAN LEGION BR. 109 BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Tina Bryar, representing Marathon Auxiliary Br. 183, Mrs. Lillian McBride, representing White River Auxiliary and Mrs. Dorothy Ballantine, representing Terrace Bay Auxiliary Br. 223, were at the head table with local officers when Schreiber ladies' auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, Br. 109 held its birthday dinner.

Mrs. Bobbie Winters, Schreiber president, was M. C. for the occasion, attended by 50.

Grace was said by Mrs. Vi Rigelsford and the toast to the Queen given by Mrs. Helen Nesbitt.

Gifts marking the occasion were presented by Mrs. Ballantine president of the Terrace Bay Auxiliary and by Mrs. McBride, secretary of White River Auxiliary and acknowledged by Mrs. Winters.

With the auxiliary's good wishes Mrs. Winters presented lapel pins of mother of pearl set with the Legion crest, to Mrs. Lorraine Weaver, and Mrs. Dorothy Hewson, leaving for White River and Smith Falls, respectively and to Mrs. Jeanette Gunter, transferred to Terrace Bay. Mrs. Gunter spoke of the companionship she enjoyed in being with the Schreiber auxiliary, referring to many former social occasions, and Mrs. Weaver and Hewson both hoped they would be visited in their new homes by Schreiber Members.

Mrs. Bern Whent was presented with a past president pin for years 1955 - 56 by the untimely delay created by a strange chain of circumstances.

A round of applause thanked Mrs. Rigelsford for making the birthday cake for the anniversary.

The meal, provided by the auxiliary, was served in the Legion club room by Borden Ross, Legion president, Jack Winters, Larry Bourke, Frank MacDonald, Gerry Nicol, Harry Smith and Keith Dunn, their style most practical but very amusing.

Attending the event from out of town were Mrs. Tina Bryar, Mrs. Judy Jewell, Marathon; Mrs. Lillian McBride, Mrs. Evelyn Burns and Mrs. Jenny Hawke, White River; Mesdames Dorothy Ballantine, Pam Jones, Ethel Boyd, Sheila Dakin, Adeline Daley, Dorothy Koski, Yvonne Rochon, Edie Belliveau, Dodie Bougie, Rita Corrigan, Joyce Mercier and Minnie Woodruffe, Stella Gusul, Liz McLeod, and Jeanette Gunter, of Terrace Bay.

Mrs. Betty Luke and Mrs. Barabara Ann McLaughlin were cashiers for the event.

Following the dinner the members were joined by their husbands and other guests for the social evening, with Fred McColeman providing music for dancing.
