ident Stan Zwaresh, President Tom Pollard, Treasurer Frank Sechesky, Recreation Committee Chairman Frank Anderson, Reeve W.E. Cavanaugh, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fisher, R. Sinotte, Recreation Director D. Courtemanche, and honoured guest R. Shock.

After dinner League President T. Pollard said it was nice to see so many fathers present and hoped that more of them would participate in the league's program next year. He thanked the coaches, convenors, referees, Recreation Association and the Women who prepared the dinner. Unfortunately all the trophies had not arrived but these would be presented at a later date.

Photos of the presentations are on page 8 ...

Introduced by the Master of Ceremonies, Ron Shock was given a standing ovation as he rose to face his audience. He said he was happy to be here in Terrace Bay though he did find it a bit chilly after a recent vacation in Florida. He told his listeners that the coaching he received while playing hockey here had done much to help him towards his present career. He spent many hours at the Rink and the coaches spent many hours with him. He paid tribute to the Recreation Director and Tom Pollard and his executive and mentioned the possibility of a summer hockey school being held in Terrace Bay in the future. If there is he would like to be a part of it.

A question and answer period, which looked as if it could have gone on all night, followed and the tenor of the questions evidenced the interest in hockey by both the youngsters and adults. Answers were concise and to the point. On Olympic Hockey teams Ron feels that under the present system players can't concentrate enough on hockey as many are still in school and must spend time in needed study.

He admitted that the puck is harder to control with a curved stick and doesn't think they should be sold in the stores yet.

He advises youngsters to master use of the straight stick before attempting any deviation. He says Bobby Hull will play again; that Montreal is the best team but that there will come a time when they will be defeated; that he will say hello to G. Dashkewytch sometime on the radio; that St. Louis is a sports-minded city and the Arena outstanding, with padded seats for spectators; that Bobby Hull's shot has been clocked at 125 m.p.h.; that he thinks Smythe made a mistake letting Imlach go and that Toronto should be a great club in a few years.

Gordon Calder presented a framed cartoon to Ron as a memento of his days with Terrace Bay Superiors and Tom Pollard, on behalf of the Recreation Committee and the Minor Hockey Association, presented him with an oil painting which had been chosen by his wife.

Many of the executive were not sitting at the head table but chose to sit with the boys throughout the hall.

After a short recess to clear the hall a film "The Half Century" was shown.
