

Mike and Anne Churney recently had visitors at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gangloff of Kenora

Touring around the neighbouring towns of Nipigon Schreiber and Marathon, Mr. and Mrs. Gangloff were most impressed with our pretty little town of Terrace Bay.

Dear Friends,
There will be a meeting in Schreiber Town Hall on Tuesday, June 17 at 7.30 p.m. standard time. sponsored by the OAMR Come and hear how these special children and adults can be trained to live happy and useful lives in our society.

recreation members using the courts, please indicate your desired hours to the Recreation Office. At the present time, it appears that we are having vandalism and a problem keeping the courts in shape. However we feel there is one way to correct the situation, and that is with the formation of a tennis group who would be partly responsible for the condition of the courts and in return they would receive special hours for play.

FASTBALL - We have approximately 160 boys and girls who started their fastball schedule on Monday and everything seems to be working out quite well. We would like to commend the coaches and managers

North Western Ontario.

Please help us make the time he has allotted us worthwhile by your presence. We are counting on a United effort from Terrace Bay and Schreiber.

Lunch will be served.
