

S C H R E I B E RANNUAL PENNY AUCTION JUNE 20

Mothers were guests at the May meeting of the Women's Institute and a new member Mrs. Jim Crook was welcomed.

In the absence of the president Mrs. Joe Campbell, the meeting was chaired by the vice president Mrs. Harvey McCanna. Mrs. J.D. Bryson was pianist.

Motto for the day was "A mother is worth 100 schoolmasters." Miss Konrad, District Home Economist, sent word that the topic for the Meal Forum to be held in Fort William will be "Tricks with Mix."

Mrs. Ken Williamson, card secretary reported many cards sent out during the month.

The time for the regular meetings was changed from 2.30 to 2 p.m. The date for the annual penny auction was set for June 20 in the town hall starting at 7.30. There will be a door prize. Each member was asked to donate six prizes and also to make a donation to a grocery hamper which will be raffled the same night.

Mrs. A.W. Slater, district director, gave an excellent report on the district annual meeting she attended along with Mrs. Harvey McCanna, in McGregor.

Pamphlets and books dealing with survival units for the home, highway and home safety were distributed.

A donation was made to the Canadian Bible Society. An eight piece set of stainless steel cutlery was ordered. Extra pieces will be added later.

The secretary was instructed to write town council for permission to place a bench in the town park.

A gift will be presented to a member leaving for Pinewood court. A letter was sent to town council complimenting them on the improved appearance of the lower hall following the renovations.

A discussion was held on the scholarship which is given to the student in the elementary schools who has the highest standing passing from grade 8 into high school. It was decided to present these at the September meeting and the secretary was instructed to write and obtain the student's names.

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

A dinner in Restaurant LeBlanc preceded the meeting of the United Church Women.

Following the dinner the group went to the Church Hall for the meeting which opened with the UCW purpose and hymn. Mrs. Wesley Clemens presided.

The minutes were read and the roll call taken by Mrs. Russell Macadam in the absence of the secretary Mrs. Nelson Smith.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Bill Thrower. A letter of appreciation was received from the Official Board for a donation of money.

The Prairie Christian Training Centre sent brochures giving information on their summer program.

A donation was made to the Canadian Bible Society. Members agreed to cater for a dinner for the St. John Ambulance Brigade on June 26.

The dinner committee will take charge of two dinners to be held in June.

Mrs. Jim Crook gave a report on a meeting of the Official Board which she attended.

The president thanked Mrs. Russell Macadam and Mrs. Walter Dukes who convened the recent card party and Mrs. Frank Fummerton for convening the lunch for the Bible Society meeting.

Penny auction and a social evening followed the meeting with lunch served by Mrs. Wesley Clemens and Mrs. Russell Macadam.
