"INK SPOTS" IN MARATHON FRIDAY

The "Ink Spots", who are known the world over, are coming to Marathon to play at the Recreation Hall on Friday, June 20th.

Long indentified as purveyors of ballads and sentimental type songs their new style, however, is as hot and alive as the latest "Rock" music. They are adept, in their dance music, in numbers ranging from slow fox trots to rhumbas and the current "Rock" best.

The group's fame started back in 1939 with a rendition of the song "If I Didn't Care". That one record sold over one million copies. During the intervening years, as styles and trends have changed, so have the INK SPOTS. Their many cross-country tours during the past fifteen years have made them one of the biggest box-office attractions in America.

BROWNIE ANNUAL

Pack 2 Terrace Bay Brownies held their wind-up picnic Saturday June 14th at the river mouth.

The event was planned and organized by four "sixers" working on their Golden Hand award. The girls are Helga Hermes, Joan Campbell, Joanne McBride and Terry Paukstys.

Planning an outing such as this is part of the test in order to receive the award.

Games, a nature hike, lunch and a candy scramble were supervised by the above named four girls.

Some eighteen Brownies enjoyed the day at the beach which ended another successful year at Brownies.
