

KIDDIES DAY

A successful outdoor Kiddie Kiddies' Day was sponsored by the Terrace Bay Legion on July 1st. Children of members flocked around a well-set table to receive their free treats.

In charge, serving in the free treat department and handled very efficiently were Pat Jones, Paul Coupal, George Churney and Heinz Schmeidchen.

Following the free treats session, the children assembled at the Moose Hall ground to participate in various types of sport activities. Sports chairman and chairman of the day Dave Gunter, assisted by president Charlie Koski, Paul Rochon, Cleon Smith, Gordon Calder, Pat Jones, and George Ramsay, in putting the children through their paces.

Highlight of the day, fans were treated to a very amusing and unique soft ball game when the Auxiliary Queens challenged the Legion Swatters. Sore back, skinned ankles, pulled ligaments and bruised knuckles were not all in vain, as the Auxiliary Queens, dressed in gay colorful uniforms trounced the Legion Swatters in a 9 to 8 victory.

Although some might have felt that there were some shenanigans going on, with an extra ball appearing from outer space, umpire Paul Pluta called the game as he saw it. Rumors have it that Paul has signed a contract to return next year.

Pitching for the game were Jean Fisher and Charlie Koski. The most valuable player award went to Pat

Jones. The star of the Swatters was George Churney having batted in 2 home runs. But, by far, the most popular players, especially with the Queens were Len Swirhun and Bill Pytyck - continued page 8 ...
