This plump little fellow with the gorgeous eyes is Dennis, 13 months old. Of black and white parentage, he is a big boy in good health, and fond of his food, as you can see. He has dark curly hair, light brown skin and luxuriant black lashes framing his big, almond-shaped eyes. Dennis is a very affectionate little boy with an easy-going, jolly disposition, always ready to make friends. He is just beginning to walk and he should be adopted soon so his new Mummy and Daddy can share the delights of discovery with him. This little boy needs a loving, stimulating home with parents who are not demanding about background information or academic achievement. To inquire about adopting Dennis please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For general information about adoption ask your local Children's Aid Society.
