RECREATION BRIEFS - By D. Courtemanche

PLAYGROUNDS - This Friday is the last day for Playgrounds this summer. We would like to think that our programmes this year were different and interesting. For the first time, we were able to expose the children to Batik, non-looming Weaving Chess, Checkers, Dominoes, Monopoly, plus various sports and active games. With this type of programme, it was our intention to assist with the total development of the person by drawing out the introvert, developing creativity through the various forms of art, teaching and developing various sports skills that have carryover values into later years. These are not all of the activities which were conducted in our summer program; there were others of equal value such as hikes, singing and creative dramatics, which played a very meaningful role in the development and education of leisure-time activity.
