50TH ANNIVERSARY MARKED

Throngs of relatives and friends filled the Moose Hall on Saturday evening, August 2nd to honour Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Cavanaugh on the occasion of their 50th Wedding anniversary.

Ed Cavanaugh, as he is popularly known, married the former Norma Devine in 1919 in the Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption, in North Bay.

Mr. Cavanaugh was with the Postal Department for 48 years, and was Terrace Bay's first Post Master, from 1946 till he retired in 1962.

A luncheon for the immediate family was held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel, preceded by Mass in St. Martin of Tours Church, where the Cavanaughs renewed their vows.

A son, Paul Cavanaugh, was Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Keith Penner, M.P. brought greetings and Jack Stokes, M.P.P. presented a plaque
