TOWN TOPICS

ATTENTION TEENAGERS AND CHILDREN

Have any of you heard about the Gillnet Gang of Ann Arbor Michigan? It is a gang not to destroy and fight but to help in any way they can.

They work anonymously, their parents didn't know what they are doing and their friends can't hang a "do-gooders" stigma on them.

One job mentioned in the article I read was "armed with paint cans they wiped out the obscenities on the over pass." Right away my thoughts went to the breezeway leading to the Dentist and back of the stores. How nice it would be if a gang of our Terrace Bay Youths would take on the task of keeping that area clean, just as silently as the mischief makers like to keep defacing it.

You could also be kept busy picking up all the broken glass, before someone falls and gets a bad cut.

It really makes you feel good when the tourists remark on our pretty clean town. It won't stay that way with wrappers being scattered here and there.

I'm quite confident we have more young people in town who care and are concerned with their surroundings and respect other people and their property, than there are people who only seem to get "joy" out of destruction. Tearing up gardens, slashing garden hoses, breaking bottles, wrecking the games room, tennis court etc.

Please give it a thought. You will be surprised at the good warm feeling you will have when you start giving a little of your time to make this a more pleasant place to live. You will also find instead of "there is nothing to do", you won't have time to do all you would like to.

If you are interested in more details of the Gillnet Gang write: to Mr. Spencer H. Havlick, Natural Resources School, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor Michigan, 48104.

A citizen interested in making Terrace Bay a better place to live and with a belief in our young people.

STORK CLUB

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Commisso of Schreiber a boy on August 15.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller of Terrace Bay a girl on August 19th.

All I'm looking for is a man who is kind and understanding. Is that too much to expect of a millionaire?
