

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Within the next few weeks Guides and Brownies will resume their weekly meetings.

There are 56 Guides and one leader.

Unless more leaders can be found the Guide Companies will have to be disbanded.

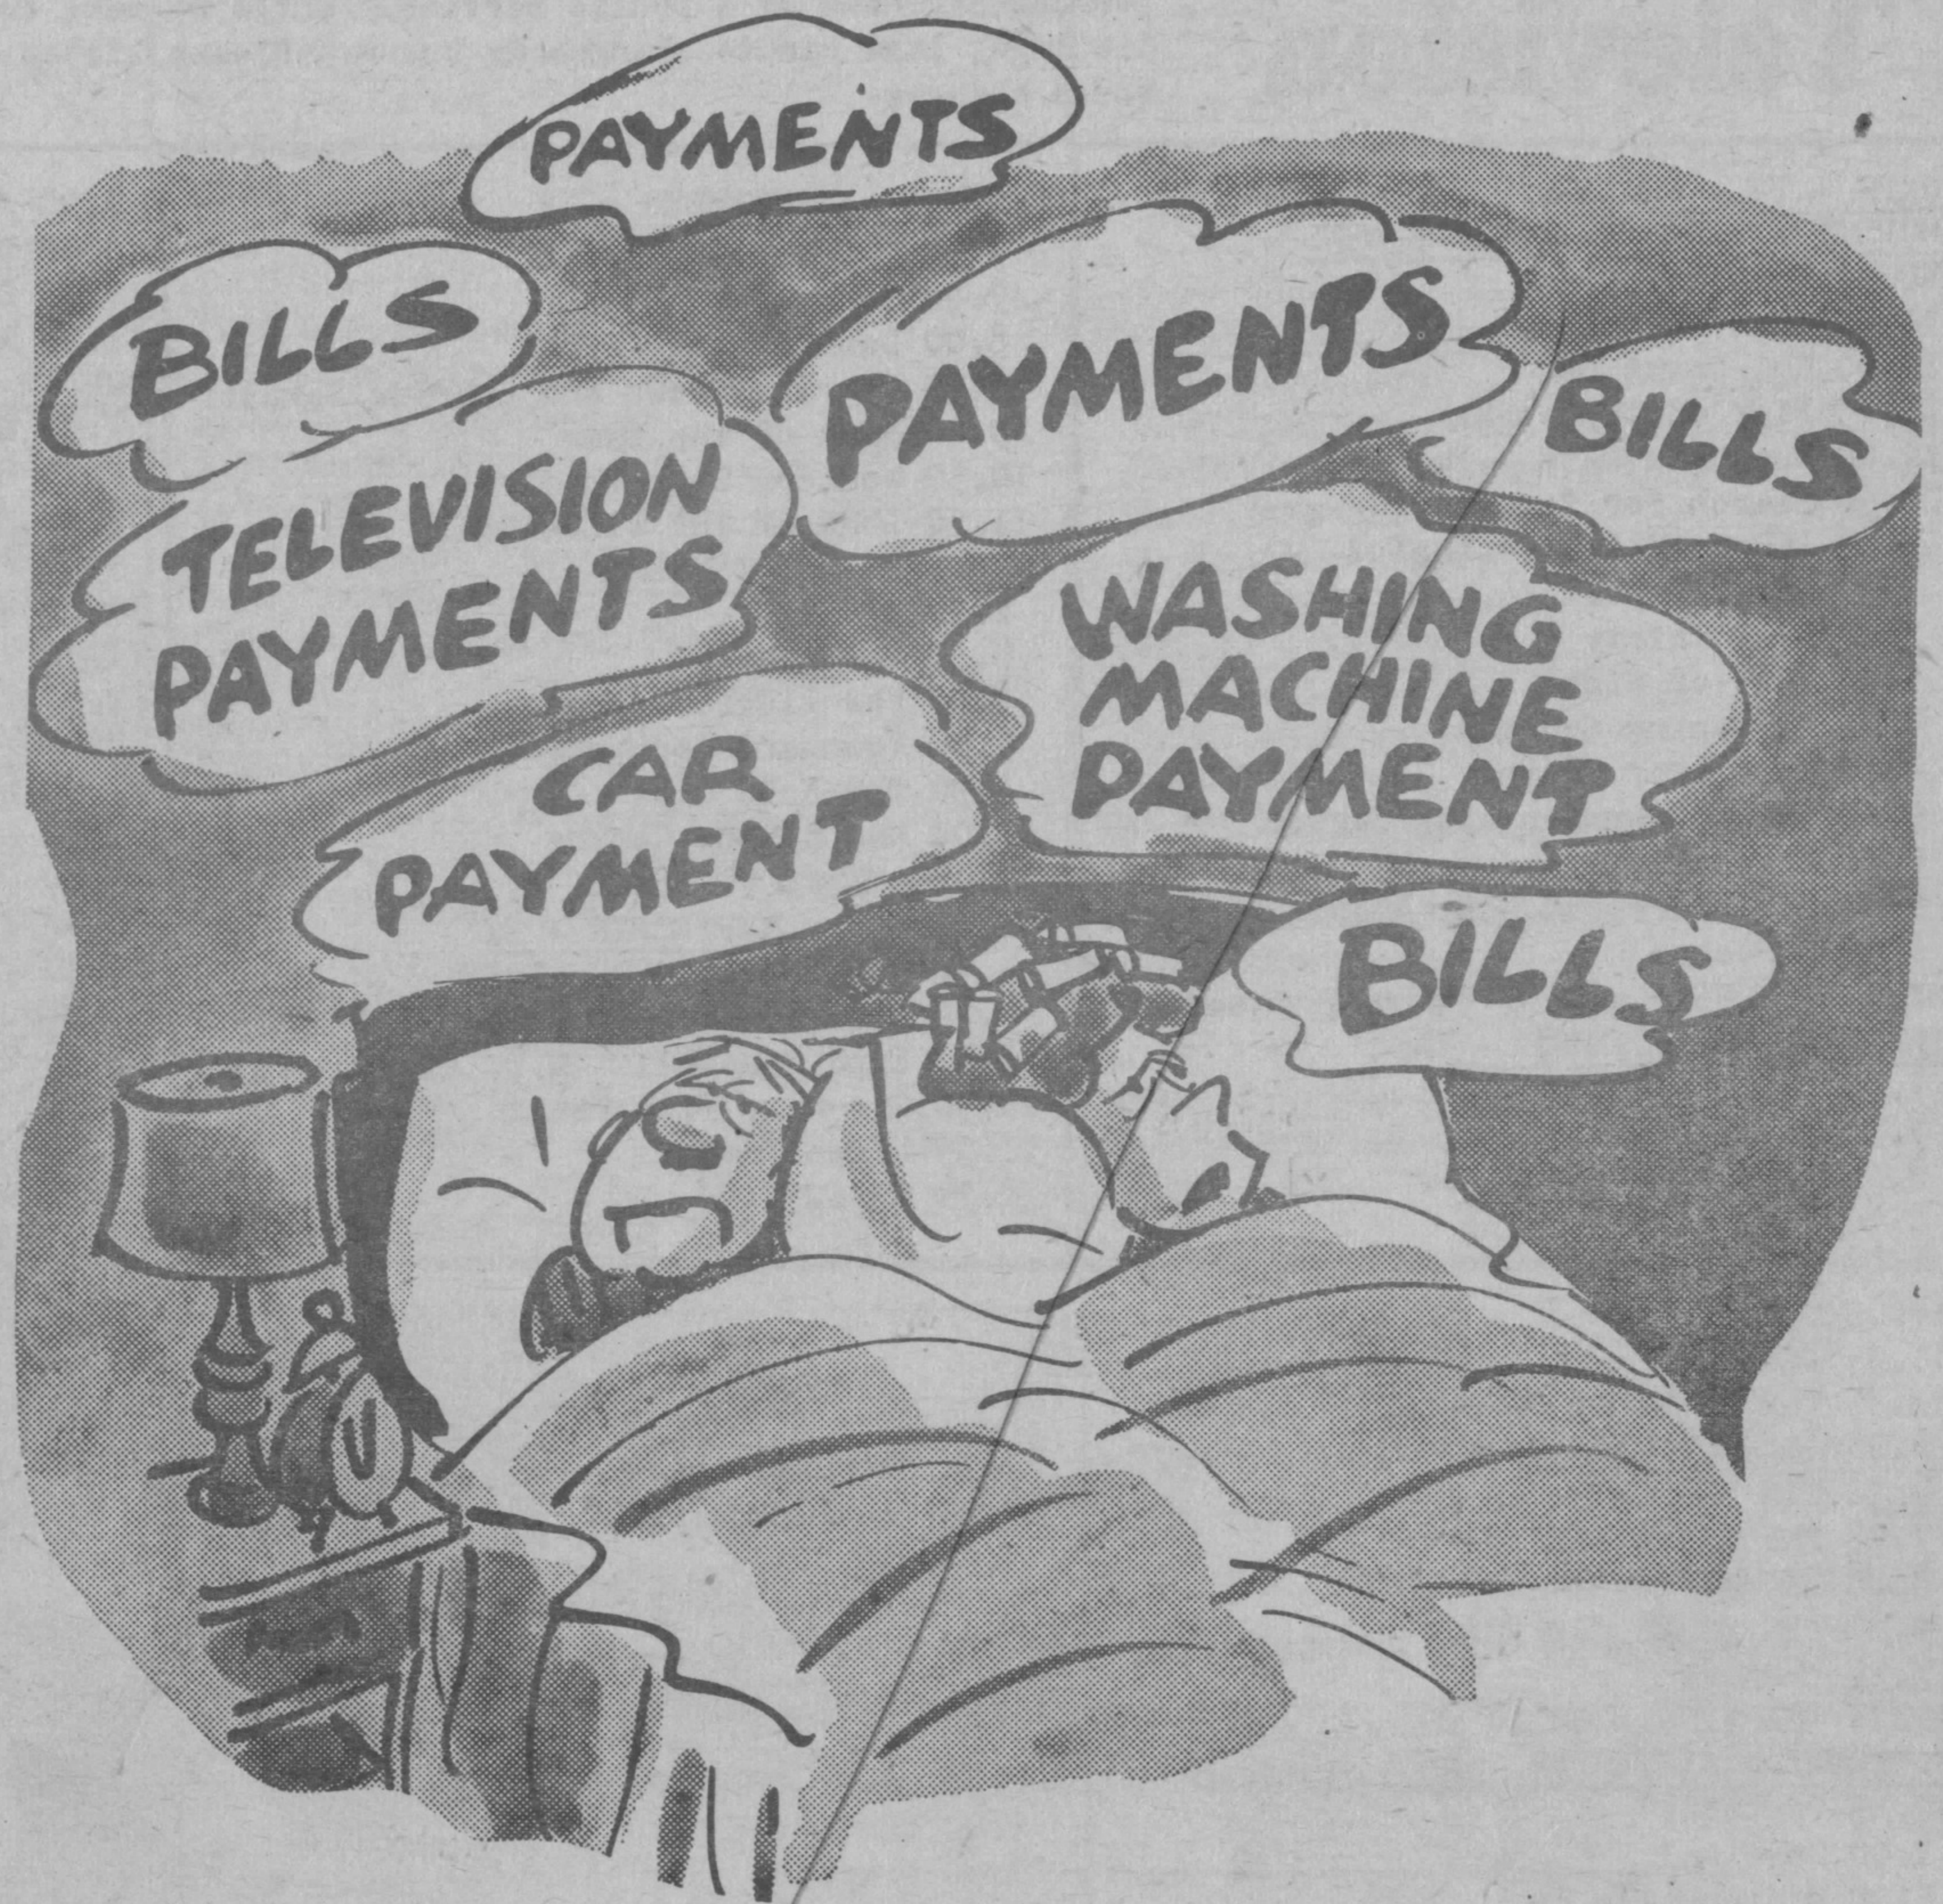

Interested ladies who wish to help the local Guides are most welcome. No experience is necessary and training is available.

Call 3210 S. Caron; or 3307 C. Cvitkovich for further information.

FALL SEASON OPENED

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Terrace Bay Community Church opened the fall season with a Dessert and Coffee, and Conversation party preceding the regular meeting. With colorful candles and bright orange place mats on the tables, it resembled a real coffee house. Orange nasturtiums were used as a centerpiece on the head table. Mrs. Gertrude Soughton was in charge of the arrangements, and Mrs. Slomke and Mrs. Chisholm provided the delightful desserts.

Mrs. Soughton introduced the program, which consisted of the singing of some old familiar hymns, as well as new ones. The program was based on the Psalms of David, and the singing was interspersed

"Maybe if we close our eyes and wish, they'll all go away."

Wishing won't make it happen. But a consolidation loan from Avco Finance will.

No magic—just a staff of expert financial counselors who believe in you and your right to a better, brighter tomorrow. And who sit down with you and work out a schedule to take care of all those worrisome bills. So all you have is just one, smaller monthly payment—and peace of mind today.

After all, any finance company can help you catch up with yesterday.

At Avco, we help you plan ahead for tomorrow.

Avco. The Tomorrow People.  We believe in you.

with passages read from the Bible, by Mrs. M. Dorland, Mrs. E. Beddard and Mrs. Lundberg. Aided by Mrs. Hodgkiss at the piano, Mrs. Soughton presented a most enjoyable program. cont'd page 8