

STORTINI-HARNESS WED IN HOLY ANGEL'S

Roses adorned the altar of Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church, Schreiber, Aug. 16 for the marriage of Sylvia Jean Harness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Harness, and John Lionel Stortini, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Giovanni Stortini, all of Schreiber. Rev. George Epoch performed the double-ring ceremony with Rev. R. J. S. Inshaw of Nipigon taking part in the service. The groom's niece Miss Anna Fummerton was organist and Giovanni Cembrario, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal length ensemble in imported frosted silk sonesta. A sleeveless dress with bodice and high Victorian neckline overlaid with Cluny lace and slim skirt falling in soft folds from an empire-style waist, was worn under a full length coat of matching material which fashioned a cathedral length train from back fullness. Lace medallions were appliqued on front panels which opened as the bride walked, to reveal her gown, and elbow-length sleeves featured similar lace trim. Her elbow-length bouffant veil was caught to a floral cluster headdress and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow Delight roses.

Matron of honor Mrs. Norman Glad, maid of honor Miss Ora Mae Harness and bridesmaid Miss Helen Harness wore similar floor-length gowns of yellow chiffon and taffeta. The bodices were enhanced by ruffles and fashioned with full sleeves. The soft folds of the skirts were gathered at the waist by a wide buckled belt of matching material. They wore matching yellow slippers and white wrist-length gloves. Picture hats with long streamers complemented their ensembles and all carried arm bouquets of white gladioli backed by white painted ferns.

William Scott was best man. Ushers were John Scott and Ronald Fummerton, all nephews of the groom. Groomsmen were Arnold Stortini and James Gellert.

Arnold Stortini was master of ceremonies at the wedding dinner at the Town Hall. Toasts were proposed by the bride's uncle A. W. Slater and W. Gerow. The wedding cake made by the bride's mother was cut by her godmother Mrs. T. Whitton.

For the reception Mrs. Harness received in a matching coat and dress in turquoise shantung with beaded cowl neckline, turquoise chiffon hat, corsage of yellow roses. The groom's sister Mrs. G. A. Scott who also received chose a pink acetate matelasse dress with matching jacket, white hat and accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Arnold O'Keefe was dining room hostess and the bride's aunt Mrs. Alvin Slater, Mrs. J. D. Bryson, Mrs. W. Cook and Mrs. E. Fummerton, sisters of the groom poured tea. The wedding cake was cut with a jade and pearl encrusted knife which belonged to the bride's grandfather.

For a honeymoon trip to Quebec and New England States, the bride donned an imported pink wool dress and coat, black hat and accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The newlyweds will reside at Apt. 406, 126 Kohler St., Sault Ste. Marie.
