Best man was Fergus Penner and Richard Doyle ushered the guests to their places.

The groom's mother wore an Oyster banded knit dress with Alecon lace lattice work collar, matching net hat and corsage of pink sweet heart roses.

A dinner for the immediate family was held in the Canadian Room of the Holiday Inn and a reception followed in Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Doyle's suite at the Inn. A toast to the bride was made by Fergus Penner during dinner.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip to Duluth the bride wore a green and purple mini-dress with three-quarter sleeves, elasticized neckline and Empire waist.

The couple will reside at 415 North Cumberland St. Port Arthur.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Penner, Kenora; Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Doyle, Terrace Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Doyle, Ottawa; and Mr. and Mrs. Fergus Penner, Schreiber.

ARGUMENT NOT VALID

SOME WELL-MEANING PEOPLE have suggested that there could be a reduction in the amount of drinking if it cost twice as much to drink as it costs now. Not many people will agree with the argument.

People who wanted to drink would drink. The price would not deter many of them but the bootleggers would be pleased by those drinkers who could afford to get their alcoholic beverages only from illicit sources.

The monopoly distribution of alcoholic beverages has been expanding year by year and season by season. The few who refrain from drinking because of the cost haven't altered that fact.
