SCHREIBER, ONT.

TO THE PEOPLE OF
SCHREIBER, ROSSPORT &
TERRACE BAY -

In a letter to district residents Rev. E.C. Prinselaar, Minister of St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber expressed his deepest gratitude to the citizens and organizations of Schreiber Terrace Bay and Rosspport for their generosity and wonderful support of the "Julibee Fall Fair."

He says " The spirit of community which was so overwhelmingly present throughout the entire day is something we treasure as the single most important achievement. A small committee of our church launched the idea and it became a community affair. Many people have asked to consider making this into an annual event. We should sit down together as a community and discuss the possibilities of the suggestion."

"My personal thanks to the men and women who did the footwork and were responsible for the many details an undertaking such as this involves. Days of work and preparation may go by unnoticed when things go smoothly, but the smoothness is deceiving and hides much work."

He thanks the ladies who helped in different ways - the donors of items to be auctioned - Rev. Father Cano , "Whose continued page 10...
