

SCHREIBERNEW WI MEMBER WELCOMED

Mrs. Della Moore was welcomed as a new member by president Mrs. Wesley Clemens at the regular September meeting of the United Church Women, Schreiber. Fifteen members attended.

Mrs. C. E. Prinselaar took devotional from the Devotional Booklet by Rev. Albert Vanten Heuriel, noted theologian who appears on the program, Man Alive.

The Superior Presbytery sent notice of a retreat which will be held Sept. 20 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at Loon Lake.

Mrs. Oscar Niemi, sewing convener, said a quilt is being finished and asked members to donate at the next meeting a yard of material to make aprons for the Christmas bazaar.

Members agreed to assist the church board at the coming fall fair by looking after the bake table and lunch booth and canvassing members for donations.

Mrs. Clemens thanked all those who had assisted at the various projects by donating or serving.

It was agreed to cater for a Kinsmen luncheon on Oct. 16 in the Guild Hall.

Mesdames Clemens, David Nesbitt and Frank Fummerton were tea hostesses.

their daughters, Sharon Riley of Toronto; their niece, Jane Riley of Belleville; and George Riley, Sr., of Mount Forrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGrath and Mr. and Mrs. John Powers were in Cormac last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Evelyn O'Connor, a sister of Mrs. Power and Mr. McGrath.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Kitchener Division 562, will hold a banquet and evening entertainment on Sept. 16 in honor of retired veterans.

The event will begin with a dinner for invited guests followed at 9 p.m. by a social for the general public.

Angus McDonald of Vancouver spent a few days here this week visiting old friends.

Alex Tweedy of Geraldton was here last week visiting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chal McCuaig of Atikokan visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCuaig, en route to visit in Southern Ontario, Montreal and Dartmouth, N.S.

Innes West is in Terrace Bay Hospital. Also Bill Black and Jack Whent are in McKellar Hospital.

Among those returning to and entering schools away from Schreiber are: - John Cosgrove, Windsor University; Patrick Spadoni, Muriel Nesbitt, Ken Borutski, Nola Fummerton, Ian O'Neil, Bill Turner, Western University, Judy McParland, St. Joseph's Order of Sisters, North Bay; Boyd Drake, Jim Gellert, Russell Nesbitt, Helen Harness, Jack Gordon, Bill Webb, John Scott, Lakehead University; Cora Spadoni, Toronto University; Wendy Weaver, Business College in North Bay; David Winters, Ryerson Institute of Technology, Toronto; Brian Bailey, Algonquin College, Ottawa; Anna Fummerton, Betty McGuire, Queens University; Douglas Stefurak, Tom Collinson, McMaster, University; Ken Martinsen, John Ross, Sean Paradis, Cambrian College, Sault Ste. Marie; Warren Morrill, Teachers College, Fort William; Colleen Cosgrove, Medical Secretary's Course, Cathy LeBlanc, Cathy Bolan, Barbara Arnold, Reg. Nurses' Aid Course, Linda Sisson, Instruction Resource Techniques, Sandra Ross, Early Childhood Training Course at Confederation College, Fort William.

Among the many relations here recently to visit Mrs. Morris, Sr. (who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morris) were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Easton, and Mrs. Jack Angove of Sudbury, Mrs. Jim Easton of Thamesford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Russell of Espanola.

One of the most unusual experiences in further education this year will be enjoyed by Gordon Elliott who is enrolled in Vallekilde School, some 50 miles from Copenhagen. This famous school is attended only by boys from other countries, all over

continued page 15

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. LORNE O'NEIL

The funeral of Mrs. Lorne O'Neil, 46, of Schreiber, who died Sept. 5 was held in St. Andrew's United Church by Rev. C. E. Prinselaar, Sept. 8. Interment was in Schreiber cemetery.

Jack Gordon was organist and hymns chosen included Abide With Me and Blest Be the Everlasting God.

Pallbearers were Gordon Willoughby, Ray Cook, Edgar LeBlanc of Schreiber, Sy Marcela, Scotty Hamilton, and Bill Pytyck, Terrace Bay, all members of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Mrs. O'Neil, the former Elizabeth (Betty) Smart, was born in Leslie, Fifeshire, Scotland. She came to Canada in 1946, moving to Schreiber in 1948.

She served with the WAAF's in Britain in liaison with the Canadian Forces. She organized and was commanding officer of Terrace Bay Wrenettes and saw them participate in Centennial celebrations for Canada. A keen supporter of hockey, she was one of the original committee members who promoted the artificial ice installation in Schreiber Arena.

Survivors include her husband, and children, Michael and Tammy, at home; Ian O'Neil, London, James, Vancouver; Barbara, Fort William; parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smart; a brother, Bill Smart, Schreiber, a grandmother and other relatives in Scotland.

Attending the service from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rescigno, Judy Rescigno, Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain, Fort William; Mr. and Mrs. John Laing and Ian Laing, Atikokan, as well as a number of friends from Terrace Bay.

TOWN TOPICS

Mrs. Henry Davis and her sister, Mrs. Edna Sutherland of Regina, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lidkea.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wrightsell of Port Arthur visited Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bolan en route home after a visit in Eastern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tomiak of Winnipeg are visiting Mrs. Nellie Mkyichuk who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LeBlanc. Mr. Tomiak is Mrs. Mkyichuk's brother.

John Peterson of Fort William visited Sean Paradis last week. They then left together for Sault Ste. Marie where they will attend college.

David LeBlanc has gone to work at Lynn Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith and family have moved to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Con Duggan are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Grant Darling in Kapuskasing.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Riley this week were