This plump little fellow is Larry, a healthy baby of four months. Though he can't sit up yet, he is active and very much aware of his surroundings. Those big brown eyes follow every movement. He loves attention and has been smiling and making friendly cooing sounds since he was six weeks old. He likes music for company when no people are around. Larry is a handsome boy with wavy black hair and slightly tanned skin. His eyes are his outstanding feature. Look at those long lashes! His background is white and black with no hereditary health problems. To inquire about adopting Larry please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For general information about adopting ask your Children's Aid Society.
