

SCHREIBER

LODGE CELEBRATES 44TH ANNIVERSARY

The charter was draped in memory of the late Dorothy Hobson at September meeting of Ruby Rebekah Lodge, Schreiber, with Mrs. Norma Fumerton, NG, and Mrs. Christine Morris, VG, presiding.

Mrs. Sarah Laidlaw, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario, will pay her official visit to the Lodge September 17. A dinner in Restaurant LeBlanc will precede the meeting and members wishing to attend should notify the secretary in advance.

Following the evening meeting on Sept. 17, a social hour will be enjoyed in the lower hall to celebrate the Lodge's 44th anniversary.

Lunch for this occasion will be provided by Mesdames Fumerton, Eirene Harness, Morris, Elizabeth Harris, Lilyan Christie, Jessie McCanna, Harriett McBride, Ileen Williamson, and Gladys Hamilton.

In addition to the many cards sent during the summer by the sick and visiting committee, farewell gifts were presented to Mrs. Lorraine Fadden, moving to Fort William, and Mrs. Lorraine Weaver, moving to White River.

Mrs. Jean Fischer, reporting for the CP and T committee stated they have arranged a penny auction for October 3 in the town hall, starting at 7:30 p.m. Members were asked to bring donations for this to the next meeting.

Mrs. Helen Wallace reported on the luncheon served to the students en route to the United Nations in July, and also, on the successful Past Noble Grand's Night, held in June.

Mrs. Bern Whent gave a detailed and interesting report of the Rebekah Assembly she attended in Toronto in June.

Mrs. Fisher reported on the district association meeting held in June in Port Arthur.

The date for installation of new officers was set for October 18.

Donations were made to the District Association, The Youth Pilgrimage Fund, and the Bursary Fund.

A most appreciative letter was received from Mrs. Barbara Hutton, on behalf of the students on the tour, for the hospitality given them in Schreiber. The Retarded Children's Association also sent a note of gratitude.

Mrs. Wallace displayed greeting cards which are now on sale by the Lodge.

ized to purchase a set of cutlery for the cupboard.

Cards and supplies were granted to the friendship convener.

Mrs. Wesley Clemens gave an interesting report on education: In Schreiber this year the public school and the high school opened under the supervision of the new Lake Superior Board of Education. The high school has a staff of 17 and 218 students, who will take either the four-year commercial or a five-year arts and science course. A large group travels daily by bus to Terrace Bay to take trade and occupation courses.

The public school, under guidance of Robert Cressman, has 203 pupils and 10 teachers. Grades 7 and 8 are being taught on the rotary system.

Holy Angels Separate School with Siter St. Timotny as principal has 16 teachers and 338 pupils.

Many of the local high school graduates go on to higher institutions of learning — the majority to Lakehead University. Jim Gellert of Schreiber was one of the class of 319 there this year to receive a bachelor of arts degree.

Five Schreiber students graduated in June from the Lakehead Teachers' College and all are now employed in out-of-town schools.

The college has now merged with the Lakehead University to form the new Faculty of Education which will train elementary and secondary school teachers.

Confederation College of Applied Arts and Technology is one of 19 such community colleges throughout Ontario, where 1,200 day and night students can take unusual and interesting courses not available in other schools.

A local graduate from this school this year was Sherrill Condie who took the kindergarten course for pre-school children.

Several local girls have recently graduated from Schools of Nursing at the Lakehead and other places.

Following the meeting, Mrs. J. D. Bryson, on behalf of the Institute, presented a cheque to Allan Turner for being the top student in Grade 8, public school. Darlene Desmoulins who won the same award in the separate school was unable to be present to receive her cheque, she is now living in the Lakehead.

Mrs. Joe Campbell presided for the meeting. Lunch was served.

Photo - Allan Turner receives cheque, presented by Mrs. J.D. Bryson

ALLAN TURNER HIGHEST STANDING IN GRADE 8

Mrs. Joe Campbell presided for regular meeting of Schreiber Women's Institute on September 9. Roll call was answered by giving the name of the first school each member had attended.

The motto was "Train a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Wesley Clemens, and Mrs. Tommy Bolan were appointed to attend the District Area Convention on Sept. 16-17 in Fort Frances.

Mrs. Alvin Slater gave a report on the meeting of the District Directors which she attended in Port Arthur.

Mrs. Sandra Scollie, home economist, of the 4-H club, wrote with information of the course which is to be given by Helen McKercher, on the choosing and using of fabrics. It will be held on October 7 and is open to the public. Those planning to take it are asked to bring box lunches. Mrs. Todesco, the secretary, will write the local church groups and lodges informing them.

A letter was received from H. M. Ermel, former public school principal, commending the WI for the scholarship they offer annually to top student in Grade 8. It was decided to place a plaque in the school bearing the names of the winners.

Mrs. Todesco reported a Bride Cookbook was given to Sylvia Harness, and that the new coffee urn for the supplies was arrived. She was author-

David Borutski is attending Sir Standford Fleming College in Peterborough, while his brother, Kenny is at Western University.

Tom McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGrath is attending Lakehead University.