

CPTA AGAIN SPONSORS CHILD MOVIES

One hundred members attended the first regular meeting, following summer recess, of Holy Angel's Catholic Parent Teachers' Association, on September 18,

Vice President, Yvon Beauparland, presided in the absence of Joe Wills.

Members were urged to write the M.P.P. supporting the brief "Equality in Education" requesting that favorable action be taken by the government to implement extension of the Catholic Elementary School System.

Toys were displayed for a novel December raffle which is to be held by Grade Eight students.

Movies for children were offered again this year on a monthly trial basis.

The custom of awarding a room attendance prize - a prize to the room with the most parents attending a C.P.T.A. meeting - was discussed and it was decided to discontinue the practice.

In place of a regular business meeting in October Mr. G. O'Brien, Superintendent Separate Schools, will speak on rejuvenation of the CPTA

Sister St. Timothy, principal, introduced her staff, with each giving a resume of the summer courses completed and their goals for the students this school year.

The advantages and exciting possibilities of team teaching were explained by the teachers who will be involved. The donation of adult or child sized rocking chairs, for use in the school would be appreciated, and minor repairs needed will be taken care of.

The senior students are planning to make movies and the loan of a simple, cartridge type movie camera will be gratefully accepted.

Mrs. Irene Borutski won the door prize, a grocery hamper donated by Costa's.

Following the closing prayer lunch was served by the new executive.

FISH STORY!

As a rule visiting relations in town are greeted warmly and offered the hospitality of their hosts friends' homes, but Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farrell and Mr. and Mrs. Art Kinnear, of Kingston, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Simon, are receiving some very cold glances, quite unearned by the wives. The men, however, richly deserve the hostility they are receiving from local anglers, who have been complaining bitterly about the lack of fish in Walker Lake.

Bill and Art decided to 'wet a line', although warned of the futility of it, and promptly got as nice a catch as was had all summer by local frustrated fishermen, using all devices of odd hours, differing weather conditions, and many and varied lures. Adding insult to injury, Bill got two beauties on one line! Rumour of a petition being circulated to prevent them from fishing here again is grossly exaggerated - there are only 100 name on it - not 300!

Mr. and Mrs. Art Rush of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCuaig this week, en route to Vancouver.

Mrs. J.D. Bryson is in Terrace Bay Hospital,
