

COUPLE UNITED IN COMMUNITY CHURCH

Patricia Sue Thorsteinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Thorsteinson became the bride of Mr. Paul F. Moon son of Mr. and Mrs. William Moon during a ceremony performed by Rev. T. Garnett Husser held in Terrace Bay Community Church on September 20th, 1969 at 4 p.m.

Multi colored Glads and Snapdragons decorated the altar and organ music was provided by Mrs. R. Inshaw of Nipigon. Soloist was Mr. C. Buck of Terrace Bay.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white imported Crimpoline made in Empire style with bow accented waist line, lace trim on the neckline which continued down the front to the hemline. The full gathered sleeves were also lace trimmed. Her silk chiffon veil fell from her Headpiece of tiny roses and lily-of-the-valley continuing on down to the bottom of her gown. She carried a bouquet of Pink Sweetheart Roses.

Her attendants were Mrs. Fay Figliomeni (sister of the bride) and Flower girl Judy Godin (niece).

The former wore an Azure Blue Crimpoline gown made with Jewel collar, narrow belted waist-line, full skirt and sleeves with wide bottomed cuffs. White Daisies adorned each curl of her coiffure and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with silver ribbon to match her shoes. Judy wore a white lace A-line dress with Azure blue underslip. White Daisies were worn in her hair and she carried a pink carnation nosegay.

Best man was William Moon, Jr. and ushers were Chas. Davis (groom's brother-in-law) and Timothy Priestley (bride's nephew).

For a reception held in the Terrace Bay Curling Club Lounge the Bride's Mother wore a green fortrel dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of Yellow Roses.

The Groom's Mother chose a beige suit, brown accessories and orange carnations.

A toast to the bride was proposed by her brother-in-law Mr. Jim Figliomeni. Her niece Debbie Priestley circulated the guest book and the wedding cake was cut and distributed by her sisters Mrs. Doris Priestley and Mrs. Mavis Godin.

Refreshments were served from lace covered table on which the three tier decorated cake was flanked by white tapers and crystal roses holding multi colored Glads

Servitors were Candy Neely, Claudette Boudreau, Lori Nickoluk and Hostess Mrs. Tychoniak.

Leaving for a honeymoon to the U.S.A. the bride wore a gray flannel walking suit with naive blouse and black patent accessories.

Out of town guests were: - Mr. and Mrs. A. Priestley and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Polhill and family, sisters of the bride. Mrs. F. Higgins, grandmother of the bride - all of the Lakehead. Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis, sister of the groom - Hurkett.

SCHREIBER DETACHMENT O.P.P., PRESS RELEASE

Report of stolen auto was investigated. Vehicle located with no apparent intent to steal evident. Other investigations included: - two Break and Enter occurrences were reported in Rossport area; presently under investigation; damage to Township property investigated and resulted in charge of Wilful Damage being laid; theft of articles from a motel room investigated, resulting in three charges of Theft under $50.00 and two charges of False Registration under the Hotel Registration of Guests Act being laid. One report of dangerous use of firearms was investigated, resulting in two juveniles being charged; three investigations were conducted with regard to violations under the Liquor Control Act and charges laid in all three instances; assistance was rendered to four Americans whose large house boat ran aground on the shore of Lake Superior near Rossport, the craft was saved from serious damage mainly through the efforts of several local residents who volunteered their assistance.

On the Traffic Scene: one fatal collision occurred October 6, near Pays Plat River Bridge, Highway 17, which claimed the life of Ernest James Burr, age 53, of 423 Merrill Street, Port Arthur. Death occurred when the vehicle operated by the deceased went out of control and collided with a rock cut. The vehicle was totally wrecked.

Three other collisions were investigated which resulted in no injuries but approximately $1900.00 damage. A total of eight warnings were issued.

Parents are urged to impress upon their children the importance of safe bicycle operation on streets and roadways. Bicycles being used during periods of darkness must be equipped with lights as provided under the Highway Traffic Act. Strict observance of these requirements must be kept.

Total duty hours amounted to 200 with 2435 miles patrolled on Highways and Other Roads.

Don't judge others too harshly - in the way they live.