the first term? If not, is it because of laziness or indifference? Does the student put pleasure before school work? Will this student successfully pass this term? Has the student gone to Teachers for extra help? If so, is he improving? If not, why not? Will the student pass the last term? Will the student have a successful year? What is his attitude now?

The photo below shows Candy Neely and Anne Marie St. Jean, two Grade 12 Business and Commerce students, standing near the mobile flow chart. This project enhanced class participation and gave the grade 12B students an insight into the new evaluation system.

and later Toronto University where he obtained his B. of Sc. degree. His hobbies include playing a trumpet and reading. Mr. Nagy enjoys the small school atmosphere and is staff advisor for the Camera Club. He hopes to establish a Physical Science Club in the near future. Mr. Nagy has a reputation for being a terrific cook. We are sure Mr. and Mrs. Nagy will be very happy in our small town.

FALL DISTRICT 2 COUNCIL

The District Two Kinsmen Fall Council was held this past week-end in Schreiber and is regarded as a very successful event.

At the business session which was held on Saturday many general policies were discussed. Two films were shown. The first dealt with the national Kinsmen's Concentrated efforts to raise funds for the destitute in Africa. The second film focused on the national convention to be held in Saskatoon next summer. This conference will "mark" the 50th Anniversary of Kinsmanship.

Many Kinsmen Clubs vie to host the District Council.

The Fort Frances organization spent much time and effort influencing the voting delegates to support them in their bid to sponsor the Fall District Council in 1971. They were successful. The 1970 conference will be held in Dauphin, Manitoba.

The council terminated with a highlight, Brother Robb, familiar to many of the area, presented entertainment at the social session on Saturday night.
