SLIDES ON CZECHOSLAVAKIA DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Father Gvora, of St. Martin's Church held a presentation of colour slides and a lecture on Sunday October 21st, to a capacity audience in the auditorium of the High School. It was mainly of his native country, Czechoslovakia, to which he had returned, after an absence of many years. Both the slides and the commentary were most interesting.

To the delight of the audience, Father Gvora performed a native dance in traditional costume.

A tall stately young matron is merely a lank lanky woman with money.
