FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION WORKSHOP

The Family Life Education Workshop, with Counselors Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Toombs, of the Pastoral Institute, Winnipeg, was most interesting and informative, to those who found the time to attend. Although there were many other activities that particular weekend, those who attended found it worthwhile.

Dr. Toombs showed films, and is an excellent speaker. Mrs. Toombs conducted the Saturday afternoon session on Communication.

Saturday evening was particularly interesting, since the subject was "What and How Shall I Tell My Child". A goodly number of teen-agers were present, and formed a panel, expressing their views and asking questions. A round table discussion took place, and the opinion was formed that there is a greater need for Family Life Education, both for youngsters, teen-agers and their parents. Many parents need family life education before they can communicate freely with their children, especially in the field of sex education.

An Inter-Faith service took place Sunday morning in the High School, with Father Gvora, of St. Martin's and Rev. Husser, of the Community Church both taking part. Sister Alexander played the piano for the singing. Dr. and Mrs. Toombs lead a dialogue in place of a sermon.

BUS DRIVERS SEMINAR HELD

The Department of Transport, with J. Fraser Reavell, Assistant Director of Safety Education, of Toronto, and R. Lewis, Accident Prevention Organizer for Northwestern Ontario, stationed in Thunder Bay, and John Carroll, Accident Prevention Officer O.P.P., Marathon Detachment, held a seminar for School Bus Drivers in the Terrace Bay High School.

The purpose of the seminar was to meet the bus drivers, to discuss problems of interpretations of rules, regarding laws, and inter-action between bus drivers, school officials and parents; and ways and means of handling discipline problems.

Mr. J. Morgan, Director of the Lake Superior Board of Education, made the preliminary arrangements for this seminar. There are seven bus drivers covering the areas of Marathon, Manitouwadge, Schreiber, Terrace Bay and Rosspport, supervised by Bus owner Werner - cont'd page 8
