

CHRISTMAS DEDICATION SERVICE

Time is going by so fast now and we have only 21 stocking stuffing days left to our Christmas dedication service tentatively planned for December 7th at 8.15 p.m. after our service.

Whether you'll be able to attend the service or not there will be a good old fashioned square dance in the Community Church basement.

Please try to attend, as we can assure to give you an enjoyable evening out.

Once again, hope to see you December 7th at 8.15 p.m. at the Community Church.

GOLF CLUB NEWS

The annual meeting of the Aguasabon Golf Club was held at 2 p.m. on November 16th in the Art room at the Recreation Centre.

Although the turnout was disappointing, a new Board of Directors was elected. These were: R. Cotton, A. Pattison, R. Gander, D. Rafalant, R. Hansen, R. Rattray, H. McLeod, J. Rogers, T. Olsen and N. Ross.

A Directors' meeting will be held at a later date to elect a president and vice president and appoint chairman for all standing committees.

Retiring President Al Pattison thanked all who made the past season so successful. He remarked on the progress which has been made on the condition of the course since Roy Cornfield came with us and looks forward to further improvements. He suggested the club consider very

How to keep the traffic moving when rush hour hits the hot water.

Rush hour. Every family has one. When there are dishes to be washed, kids to be tubbed, Dad scrubbing up. Then Sis decides she has to have a shower. It takes a lot of hot water to keep the traffic moving.

That's why you need the Cascade electric water heater—the big producer. It's got the capacity a busy family needs, and it's economical, too. Cascade keeps you in hot water for only pennies a day. Ask your Hydro about the quiet, clean, electric Cascade water heater.
