power to add to their numbers, if the occasion warrants. Elected to this committee by secret ballot were Harold (Mush) Marsh, Paul Boudreau, William (Casey) Kozak, Bill LeBlanc and George (Happy) Parks. The committee members elected Bill LeBlanc to act as their chairman.

Bill comes to us from Marathon, where his experience in the sporting field certainly warrants his heading this committee. Bill will be a bright light in our hockey picture this winter.

Since it's induction, the hockey committee has been mulling over the problems of equipment and teams, but at this writing nothing definite is available for publication from the hockey moguls. The outdoor rink will be equipped with lights and a dressing room. It's going to be great for a bush league fellahs!

Tentative plans call for a house league composed of as many teams as there are enthusiastic players. From this league, a representative Company team will be iced to play outside clubs. The chairman and his committee will need your support to make this hockey minded community. Keep posted for future practice notices. See you at the starting whistle.

Don't think that we have forgotten all of you who do your skating minus hockey sticks. Plans will be made for pleasure skating. So come on you fellahs, put on your blades for a lot of healthy fun this winter."
