

AGUASABON GOLF NEWS

The first meeting of the newly elected executive of the Aguasabon Golf Club, met Thursday, January 8th, with president-elect, Dan Rafalant, in the chair.

The purpose of the meeting was to name the newly formed committees and the committee chairman. In order to streamline the duties of the executive and to spread the duties on a more equitable basis, the President has made some minor changes and the Committees and their chairman are now as follows -
 President - Dan Rafalant
 vice-president - Jim Rogers;
 treasurer - Neil Ross;
 secretary - Reg Cotton;
 Greens and house - Hec McLeod; tournaments - Dick Rattray; membership and training - Ray Hansen; rules and handicaps - Thor Olsen; entertainment - Rolly Gander and publicity and trophies Al Pattison.

The "Open" tournament will traditionally be the responsibility of the vice-president.

Junior golf will be headed by Bill Hanley.

President Dan, expressed his optimism for a good year in 1970 and urged all Committee members to apply themselves diligently to their duties.

The Aguasabon Golf Club also wished to express its thanks to local snowmobilers for resisting the urge to use the golf course fairways until such time as it was reasonably covered with a blanket of snow. Greenskeeper, Roy Cornfield and Hec

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK, FEBRUARY 9TH TO 15TH.

How much home are you missing through outdated wiring?

When this house was built it was hard to imagine all the wonderful ways in which electricity would be serving us today. That's why the wiring in so many older homes just isn't adequate for today's needs.

There are many signs. Fuses blowing. Lights dimming. Appliances performing sluggishly. Cluttered extension cords. Not enough outlets.

So, if you're planning to modernize your home, think first of the wiring. Have a qualified electrical contractor check it. You'll be surprised at how easily and inexpensively it can be updated. The Hydro Finance Plan makes it easy to get started right away. Just ask your Hydro.

The Name of the Game is Electrical Living.
