

Letter of Interest - cont'd from page 8

In this day of diminishing Canadian identity, it is vital to our existence as an independent country to instil this national pride in the coming generation.

Everyone involved in the support of the cadet system deserves a vote of thanks from the general public but, more deserving of praise, are the individual boys who often face laughter and unjust criticism. They are the leaders, citizens and protectors of tomorrow and should be applauded for their efforts, rather than ridiculed, not only by adults but by their fellow students. My admiration and appreciation extends to every one of them.
