

SCHREIBERCOUNCIL QUOTES

Schreiber Reeve, F.V. Harness, councillors R.B. Spadoni, J.S. Caccamo, H.H. Fischer, and H.J. McParland, returned by acclamation, welcomed and congratulated each other at their inaugural meeting, each feeling that 1970 will be a year of hope and fulfillment for their town.

Among matters discussed were a review of by/laws concerning old buildings, unsightly properties and parked, wrecked vehicles; and arrangement to put tax arrears into a reserve fund; renovation of the town hall, and continuing to replace sidewalks each year as needed.

Reeve Harness agreed to meet with officials in Toronto in the matter of sewage installation, in this instance concerned with crossing the new highway by sewage lines.

Building a new post office in Schreiber will benefit the municipality, but the site has yet to be determined. The change in the assessment act, with higher equalization assessment, will bring higher assessment to Schreiber, and councillor McParland urged taking some form of economic service to the town - a study of ideas in promotion of the town when the sewage installation is completed.

Mr. Spadoni expressed appreciation for the work done by council, on his behalf, and for their kindness to his family during his lengthy illness last year, hoping that his added time and concern this year, would repay them.

It was agreed the new highway lighting and paved access to the town were much desired improvements.

Mr. Fischer paid tribute to the co-operation of both the office and town staffs. Mr. Caccamo expressed his satisfaction in the policing of the town, protection by the volunteer fire department, the new ambulance, the garbage paker (already paid for) and the arena board.

Mrs. M. Zombori, and Aurel Gauthier, (newly appointed assistant town clerk) acknowledged their pleasure in working for the town.

Appointments made were - Mrs. Mary Zombori, clerk, treasurer, tax collector; Edmund Borutski, utility man; Clarkson Gordon and Co., auditors; H.G. Blanchard, town solicitor; H.J. McParland, representative on Thunder Bay Health Unit for 1970; Mrs. Inez McCuaig, ratepayers' representative on the public library board, with Mrs. Jacqueline Turner, Mrs. Michael McGrath, Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire, and Gwen Hadley. The library grant was set at $1200. and rental at $800.

Regular meetings of council were set for the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m.

Spadoni; Fire - J.S. Caccamo; Police - F.V. Harness, H.J. McParland; Building Inspector - H.H. Fischer; and Recreation - H.H. Fischer.

Council approved a request from Ontario Hydro for a Grant of Easement for a wood pole transmission line from the existing line to proposed distributing station, as outlined on property sketch P.D.S., 1732.

Council tabled the budget presented by the Fire Brigade and accepted their elected fire chief - Peter Doig, and deputy chief - Walter Zaporzan.

Council were not in favor of the proposed new home for the aged but favored an extension to Pine-wood Court, using all its existing facilities.

Water works accounts of $1139.96 and general accounts of $1241.58 were passed for payment.

Rental for 1970 for water works office was set at $2400.00.

Councillor McParland was appointed to inquire into the possibility of constructing an access road to Lake Superior beach from Schreiber, a road which was formerly much used by local people.

Mr. McParland was authorized to sign cheques in the absence of Reeve Harness.

A change was made in payment of town employees, Formerly town employees were paid every second Friday with cut-off period on Thursday at 6 p.m. Cut off period will now be on Wednesday at 5 p.m.

The office of the by/law enforcement officer was put up for bid.

It was decided to have tax bills done in Thunder Bay by electronic Data processing method.

The Recreation committee will be charged rental for their monthly meetings.
