

Headmasters Conference - cont'd from page 15

in Toronto. He visited Thornlea Secondary School, Thornhill, Ontario, one of the most innovative schools in the province.

HONOUR STUDENTS

Congratulations are extended to the students achieving 75% or over on their winter report. Pictured below are: -

Front row, left to right - Dale Sisson, Beth Ross, Karen Guina, Clover Dukes, Kathy Guina, Sharon Scott, Debby Lidkea, Doris Lehto. Middle row - Nancie Spillane, Marylyn Cook, Lynda Fontaine, Sharon Smith, Brenda Krystia, Norma Walkers, Susan Graham. Back Row - Larry Power, Ted Ross, Victor Dukes, Michael Spadoni, Alan Turner. Absent from photo - Mary Costa.

Pictured above - Winner of Prepared Speech, Ted Ross

PUBLIC SPEAKING WINNERS

Pictured above - left to right - Ted Ross, John Souliere, Janet Crook and Gerry Lankinen.

Last Friday, January 23rd, the district public speaking contest was held in the Schreiber High School gymnasium. This competition was open to students from Geraldton, Nip-Rock and Schreiber High Schools.

Janet Crook placed first in the Impromptu Secion and Ted Ross was first in the Prepared Speeches. Both these students will compete in the Zone Finals to be held February 23rd at Hammarskjold High School in Thunder Bay.

On behalf of the local Hydro Commission, Mr. J. Phillips presneted prizes to the winners, and also to the runners up: John Souliere, Schreiber, and Gerry Leinonen, Nip-Rock.

Thanks and appreciation are extended to: the adjudicators, Mr. R. Cressman, Mr. J. Ferrier and Mr. F. Koehn; the chairman, Mr. D. Williamson; the timer, Mr. A. Gouthro; to the accompanist, Miss Dale Sisson and to the Schreiber High School Home and School Association, who served coffee during intermission.

We congratulate Janet and Ted and wish them luck on February 23rd.

continued page 17

ing dog or sur
ser
F
col

Sch
wil clo
F
of anc

I
hon
Cor
Lif

F Lac in 190
F
Pau