TOWN TOPICS*C.W.L. TO HOST WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held in St. Martin's Parish Hall, on Sunday evening, Feb. 8th, opening with League Prayers and a reading from the Jerusalem Bible.

Mrs. W. Corrigan, president, welcomed the members, Mrs. L. McBride read the minutes and correspondence, and Mrs. D. Kenney gave the treasurer's report. Standing committees tabled their reports.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement that the Catholic Women's League will host the Women's World Day of Prayer, in St. Martin's of Tours Church on March 6th, at 2 p.m. All ladies of the town are invited to attend, and it is to be hoped that there will be a good turnout. Coffee will be served at the close of the meeting.

During the month of March, a Starvation Luncheon will be held, for the ladies of St. Martin's, the date to be announced later. Proceeds will go to Peace and Development.

Mrs. F. Helmink, Public Relations Officer, held a panel discussion on the election of officers for the C.W.L. Those serving on the panel were Mrs. B.

Walsh, Mrs. M. Anderson, Mrs. P. Malashewski and Mrs. A. Regis. The panel outlined the duties of officers in the League. A thorough discussion took place, describing the election by ballot.

The meeting was adjourned, and Mrs. A. Allen and her committee served lunch.
