accessories, fancy stitching, batik, and attractive burlap flowers.

Since the class ranged widely in age and positions its success must be attributed to the instructors. An increased attendance is anticipated on the next occasion. The Lakehead Area Craft Association sponsored the class.

DISTRICT COMMISSIONER ASKS FOR ASSISTANCE

Mrs. Mary Shack, district commissioner, made an eloquent plea, at the February meeting of the Catholic Women's League for assistance with girl guide movement which is in danger of collapse, due to the lack of leaders in Schreiber.

The Guides are given financial assistance by the CWL but as sponsors, Mrs. Shack said, they should feel a moral obligation to assist in other ways. Mrs. Kevin O'Brien is at present assisting Mrs. Ross Hill and Mrs. Rex Dye has offered to assist with craft instruction.

In addition to actual leadership there is a great area in which other help is of the utmost value - in teaching various crafts and skills, and in giving tests in these when finished, in order to qualify for badges.

But there is an urgent need for the girls' parents to be interested and concerned, and when possible, involved in the work.

Mrs. Shack can arrange leadership training for both Blue and Brown Guiders and provide basic training also.

With the growing dissatisfaction among the younger generation this is a wonderful opportunity to learn in continued page 16 .....
