L. Gorman has again agreed to act as Dog catcher when the new Dog pound is erected. Dog fines remain at $25.00 for a licensed dog, $30.00 for an unlicensed dog, plus $5.00 per day, or portion of day, that they are impounded.

The Police report read: two persons charged under the Highway Traffic Act, convicted; one person charged under the Criminal Act, convicted. Four accidents during month, one resulted in driver being charged with impaired driving by a breathalyzer test. There seems to be more order at the Recreation Centre since the new Recreation Director has arrived.

Several complaints have been received from residents on Lakeview Drive about dogs dumping garbage. This is under investigation and will be kept under control, with the resumption of a dog catcher.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MISS SHIRLEY DAVIES

The knitting club of which Mrs. Jean Roberts is a member, were joint hostesses at a proxy briday shower, in honour of Shirley Davies, held at the home of Mrs. B. Lohr.

Shirley is the fiancee of David Roberts, and since she resides in Dryden, and could not be present at the shower, the guests brought their gifts unwrapped and presented them to Mrs. Roberts, after which they were passed around, then returned to the donors, to be wrapped and sent on to Shirley.

Mrs. Roberts, representing the bride, sat in a gaily decorated chair, and a white wedding bell hung over the dining room table, from which a delicious lunch was served. Tall white tapers and a lace cloth enhanced the setting.

Mrs. Lohr was assisted in serving by Mesdames J. Schritt, Berndtsson and Welsh.

With an archway gayly decorated with pink and yellow flowers and Hawaiian music in the background, the Brownies danced hula style around the Toadstool.

Mrs. P. Boutilier, Brown Owl, opened the proceedings by welcoming the parents and guests, and briefly explained the Brownie program and what it means to be a Brownie.

Guest of honour for the evening was Mrs. S. Caron, District Commissioner, who presented the new Brownies with their pins and emblems. Each Brownie was also presented with a lei and a flower for her hair, in keeping with the Hawaiian theme.

Tweenies welcomed into the pack were Denyse Desrosiers, Gilda Pederson, Suzan Helmink, Diane Briscoe, Susan Roberts, Cathy Churney, and Tracy Stachiw.

During the evening, seven Brownies received their Golden Bars. They were Delena Almos, Cheryl Moore, Karen Nesbitt, Leslie McBride, Joan Heibert, Rosalie Reid and Lise Cormier.

Several games and a singsong led by Packy Teresa Ramsay was enjoyed by all.

The evening closed with a Pow-Wow and Brownie Taps.
