Here is Wayne, just turned two. He's a handsome child with beautiful big hazel eyes, brown hair and medium complexion with rosy cheeks. Wayne is a sturdy boy, in excellent health and always active. He really enjoys his toys — look how possessively he's holding that ball.

He is alert and interested in everything going on and he loves attention from people he knows, though he's a bit shy of strangers.

Wayne has a big vocabulary of single words but his conversation is mainly in his own special language. This little fellow has been accustomed to a lot of affection so he needs parents who will give him a warm, loving home.

To inquire about adopting Wayne please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Service, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For general adoption information ask your Children's Aid Society.
