

Jamaica Winter Carnival - cont'd from page 5
the contents of the jar.

On behalf of Sheila Hughes, the staff and students of St. Martin's School would like to thank all those who, through their participation, donation and attendance, helped to make the day such a success.

Mr. Drapeau, brings a wealth of experience with him. Ten years ago, Michael Anderson, Wright Motors, Nipigon.

Mr. Drapeau invites all local businessmen's School, has him about their mechanical procedures his B.A.

CROSSWORD

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| ACROSS | 44. Entertain |
| 1. Apple center | 45. Old Greek musical note |
| 5. Knotted | 46. Straw or mile |
| 9. Entices | DOWN |
| 10. Relatives of the bassoon | 1. Heal |
| 12. Rumanian | 2. Spoken |

degree in English and History from Queen's University, Kingston.

Work on the degree was completed last summer and the official presentation will take place this spring.

Born in Kapuskasing Mr. Anderson received his elementary and secondary education there. From 1959-62 he was employed by Spruce Falls Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd. in the Paper Mill Department of their Kapuskasing mill. After attending Hamilton Teachers' College (1962-63) he returned to Kapuskasing to teach at St. Patrick's Separate School for four years.

He also taught one year in Elliot Lake before coming to Terrace Bay a year and a half ago. While working toward his degree, he was awarded the McNeil Prize for highest standing in English (1966) and the MacClement Prize for highest standing in Canadian History (1968).

Carla Crockford and Norma Jean Phillips entered the Lakehead Music Festival on Wednesday, March 4th at the Exhibition Auditorium and out of a class of five, came first in the Piano Duet for 11 and under. They were granted marks of 83.

Their parents and cont'd next col..

their teacher, Sister Marion, of St. Joseph's Convent, are justifiably proud of these two girls.

Photos below were taken during the "Jamaica Winter Carnival" held at St. Martin's School of broomball events and snowshoeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hopper, with Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen recently attended the 30th annual convention of the Ontario Credit Union League in Ottawa. While in Ottawa, they attended a night sitting of the House of Commons, as guests of M.P. Keith Penner.

Prosperity is great. Too bad it's so expensive.