HORT. SOCIETY PLANS APRIL 17th MEETING

The Terrace Bay Horticultural Society met Tuesday evening. Hilda Heibert read the correspondence. A letter from Norman Harrison, Director of Thunder Bay, invited the members to attend the District meeting to be held in Cumberland Hall Friday evening, April 3rd at 8 p.m. Terrace Bay Town Council approved the public planting committee plans for plants in the usual areas. Potted begonias, house plants, are the premiums for memberships.

Mr. W. Chomniak will be showing slides on begonias, and care in planting them at the annual meeting on Friday, April 17th at 7:30 p.m. in the large meeting room of the Recreation Centre.

George Birch gave a report from Reeve Harness of Schreiber, approving having the members arrange planting at the Cenotaph.

Fertilizer will be available to members from John Steen. Membership cards are available from all Director Members for $1.00.
