Terrace Bay is the same. It's a relatively modern company town, however, built in 1946 by Kimberly-Clark for its local pulp and paper mill.

Brenda's 214-pupil school has the same casual atmosphere. Rabbits run loose in the hallways and Brenda keeps a budgie in her room - anywhere in her room except the bird cage.

Wendy and Brenda are here because 1,600 of the province's 8,000 teachers' college graduates had not been hired by last May 1. A department spokesman estimated that 600 graduates were unable to find teaching jobs anywhere in the province.

Both girls plan to stay next year.

L.A. MEETING - con't from page 5

Bake Sale the huge success it was.

The meeting was adjourned and a lunch was served by the members of the L.A.

TERRACE BAY ART CLUB

The Terrace Bay Art Club held their monthly meeting Thursday, April 2nd. Reports of the various officers were read.

The Art Course given by the Art Club is now over and was very successful.

Final plans on the Art and Craft Show to be held April 17th and 18th were drawn up. It was hoped that this would be well attended.

The meeting was then adjourned.
