Canoe Trails Through Quetico - by K. Dennis.

There is a new Bookmobile display of Fiction.

To Touch The Sky - by June Parker Goodman.

Mrs. Goodman presents a down to earth philosophy based on examples of applied Christianity - examples which demonstrate that the Christians Life can be proof of the existence of the things of God in the world of man.

Lady of The Backwoods - by Sarah Eaton.

The perfect introduction to Canada's past, takes the reader back to the 19th century and re-creates two different societies of the time - life in England and living condition in Upper Canada. The rugged setting is around Peterborough.

SIMMER - FENTON VOWS EXCHANGED

Patricia Ann Simmer, eldest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Simmer and the late Charles Simmer, became the bride of Michael James Fenton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Fenton of Toronto, at 5 p.m. April 18th, in St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church, Terrace Bay. Father A. Gvora officiated and Mrs. S. Hodgkiss was organist.

The bride, escorted by her uncle, Royden Knibbs, wore a formal sleeveless white gown with matching coat edged with lace which fell into a train. Her head piece was a tiered veil caught by a small cluster of petals.

She wore the groom's gift of a silver heart locket and carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Lynn Simmer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a formal length mauve gown, trimmed with white lace and carried a nosegay of yellow sweetheart roses.

Victor Fenton, brother of the groom, was best man.

CEBRARIO HARDWARE and LUMBER

TERRACE BAY - 825-3224 - SCHREIBER - 824-2511

Charles Simmer and David Osborne ushered.

The reception was held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel where the brides mother wore a turquoise dress with matching hat and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother chose a beige dress and multi coloured flowered hat and corsage of orange ice roses.

The wedding cake had been beautifully iced and decorated by Miss Kristine Olsen. Victor Fenton was master of ceremonies and the toast to the bride was given by Royden Knibbs.

For going away, the bride wore a black and white checked dress with white jabot and matching sleeveless coat, with black patent leather purse and shoes and corsage of pink roses.

They will reside in Toronto while the bride completes her Child Care Course at Thistletown Hospital and the groom finishes his final year of engineering at the University of Waterloo.

Those attending from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Fenton and Douglas, Jerry Lacasse, Shirley Ducker and David Osborne all of Toronto; Derek Lasocha of Nipigon; Mr. and Mrs. Royden Knibbs of Thunder Bay; Mrs. L. Kiff, grandmother of the bride, of Chatsworth. Continued on pg 13 ..
