SCHOOL BOARD BUDGET EARLY IN JUNE

Last week your news reporter was invited to make the 60 mile trip to Marathon to attend a regularly scheduled meeting of the Lake Superior School Board. These meetings are open to the public, are advertised as such and, since they concern the education of our young people and also involve the expenditure of the largest part of the tax payer's money, should be well attended by parents and interested citizens. As we entered the auditorium of Steven's Avenue Public School an overheard sotto voce "and here you will see democracy at work" penetrated our after dinner

(and after regular working day) la

There were approximately fifty elected or appointed trustees and male members of the Lake Superior teachers but few parents or intere

At this point we got a little bo etc.

Board staff teachers all paid er Trustees get $100 per month, etc
