

If you think Ontario can solve its pollution problems without your help, you're not thinking.

Fortunately, for our future a lot's been done about pollution right now. But to wage and win the war against pollution, Ontario needs your help.

Who causes pollution anyway?

The unpleasant answer: we the people. People who buy the products that industries produce. People with cars and boats. People who fly. People who build cottages and heat homes. Even people who keep live-created an Air Management Branch with a highly trained staff of over 200 specialists and a multi-million dollar budget. With this kind of power directed at the air pollution problem, we can all breathe a little easier.

War on water

The war on water pollution is being waged and won. The Ontario Water Resources Commission works with communities throughout the province to plan and construct water

What can you do about pollution?

You can get concerned and stay concerned. You can make sure your boat, your cottage, your car or your plant isn't adding to the problem. You can tell your children and yourself that air is not an ashtray, rivers and lakes are not free sewers, and soil is not dirt.

You can be prepared to invest in a clean, healthy province for our children. To do that we need a healthy
