VENTURERS PARTICIPATE IN CANOE TRIP

July 4th to 12th were very big days for eight members of the 1st Terrace Bay Venturers. During that preiod, Gary Opas, David and Dale Randa, Richard Smith, Michael Regis, Bevin Schritt, Alex Vanderkam and advisor Doug Whicker participated in their Steel Lake Canoe Trip. The boys, as planned, went as far as Steel Lake but not down the Steel River.

The group left town early on the morning of Saturday, July 4th with four canoes and about ten packs full of tents, gear and supplies. The first night found them approximately two miles up Cairngorm Lake.
 Sunday, the fifth was spent resting and fishing. On Monday, they broke camp and set sail for the south end of Steel Lake. A slight drizzle slowed the the progress but Steel was reached just in time for supper. For the next four days, they set up a standing camp, fished, baked bread and biscuits and went canoeing. It rained only once, on the night of Tuesday the seventh. On Thursday and Friday the temperature soared well into the 90's, making things a little uncomfortable. Two fly-in groups also paid the boys a visit. Breaking camp on Saturday, they made their way from Steel Lake back to their camp on Cairngorm Lake. Sunday saw the group home.

Everyone truly enjoyed themselves. The boys extend a thank you to those who loaned canoes, Mr.
 E. Opas for supplying transportation and for any others who in any way added to the success of this camp.
