

SCHREIBER

TOWN TOPICS

Mrs. Inez McCuaig, Schreiber, enjoyed a recent visit from former piano student, Sister Mary Ellen (Kitty McGettrick), of Peterborough, whom she taught in 1920.

Although music is not her avocation now, Sister Mary Ellen said she still enjoys playing the piano and that it is a great part of her life.

The second annual St. Andrew's United Church fall fair will be held in the arena Sept. 17 - 19 with the usual crowd-attracting auction.

Donations for auction will be accepted by George Gordon, Gary Drake, W. Gerow or Rev. Prinselaar.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cataford, Schreiber, have their sons, Morris, Boston, and Roger, Sarnia, and their families visiting them.

Sanford Chicoine and daughters, Gaetene and Estelle, Schreiber, returned home after visiting relatives in Sudbury. Mrs. Chicoine who has been taking a teaching course in Toronto, joined them in Sudbury for the trip home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Winnipeg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gellert and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Gellert, Schreiber.

Mrs. Yola Cebrario, Schreiber, visited relatives in White River over the holiday weekend.

Miss Gwen Hadley, secretary-treasurer of Library Board presented a farewell gift to Mrs. Andrea Hill, librarian for the past six years. Aileen Ross, junior librarian presented Mrs. Hill with a long crocheted vest she made.

Miss Jeanie Sedore, Belleville, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sisson, visiting also with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrill, Schreiber.

Bob Ryan, Schreiber, is visiting relatives in Perth.

Jack Richardson, Rod Relph, Ian Fummerton and Brent Kushnierk have returned from a two-week summer course at Quadra, BC. All Sea Cadets, they participated in the Navy League-sponsored outing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gilmour, Almonte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gilmour, Schreiber.

Mr. and Mrs. Adjutor Garneau, Quebec City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rosaire Garneau, Schreiber.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGrath and Mrs. John Power, Schreiber, attended the funeral of a cousin in Killaloe, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Pyke, Schreiber, are in Toronto visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pyke.

Floyd Burns, Lynn Lake, is visiting his father, Arnold Burns, Schreiber.

Ambrose McGrath and Morgan McGrath, Schreiber, visited the former's sister, Sister Anna Grace in Peterborough.

A round of amused reminiscing is now taking place with the visit of Mrs. Dorothea Wykes of Toronto to the home of Mrs. Ted Wilson in Schreiber.

Mrs. Wykes and her late husband Percy, operated the movie house in Schreiber from 1917 to 1932, and the friends are now recalling their favorite serials and stars of other days — The Girl and the Game, with Helen Holmes, a railway epic that entranced viewers with its impossibilities; The Red Circle, The Voice on the Telephone, The Bluebird Girls and many other favorites.

Also remembered with delight are the more involved members of the audience who'd leap to their feet with shrill cries of warning when the villain was about to pounce on a favorite star.

Wendy MacDonald and Sheila McKay are visiting with Mrs. Agnes McCouan of Schreiber.

Mrs. Eva Bailey, Thunder Bay, is at Walker Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Reg Bailey of Schreiber. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon and Clyde are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brown in Kapuskasing. Brian Bailey has returned to deep river after visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Reg Bailey of Schreiber. Bryan Hiller has returned to Schreiber after visiting relations in Thunder Bay.

Rev. Cyril McGuire of Pittsburgh is relieving Dean Cano in Holy Angels' Parish, Schreiber.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Gibson and Lauri Halonen Sr., Thunder Bay, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes and Mrs. Saimi Willoughby in Schreiber. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tomiak and family, with Mrs. John Tomiak, from Winnipeg are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LeBlanc, Schreiber, and will be also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cebrario and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gilmour.

Mrs. Donald Brown was hostess at a farewell party given for Mrs. Sandy Law by the Slim and trim Club in Schreiber. Mrs. Law was the club instructor. The coffee party lunch defied all club rules with a grand array of forbidden goodies. A painting by a local artist was presented to Mrs. Law who was also wished happiness in her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Brown hosted a farewell party for Mr.

and Mrs. Ross Hill who are leaving for Toronto where Mr. Hill has been transferred by CPR Signals Dept. Company officials and other friends highlighted the occasion with recollections of episodes in the Hills' seven years in Schreiber.

A cake made by Mrs. Gladys Hamilton of Schreiber, depicting the town and its surrounding hills, centred the buffet lunch table. On behalf of the group, Mr. Brown presented a painting by Alice Sparkes of Lake Superior beach.

Anne Noonan is with the department of microbiology (biology-research), the School of Hygiene in the electron-microscopy unit, University of Toronto. This is a fairly new field, the courses attended by doctors and technicians, with research done as well as teaching. Anne is home now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Noonan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoyand of Thunder Bay are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Blanchette.

Mrs. John Inshaw of Toronto and Mrs. R.J. Inshaw of Nipigon visited Mrs. Donald Brown this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Hood, Mrs. Agnes Gerow and grandson Bobby, and Mrs. Mable Jennison are visiting Mrs. Ernest O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Humenicki and family of Winnipeg are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Humenicki. Jeff Millard and Mark Hall of Guelph are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sisson.

Mrs. 'Chuck' Forman is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Medlar, in Ottawa.

Mrs. Alice Potvin and Mrs. Bob Hutchinson, of Thunder Bay, with Mrs. Axelson of Geraldton, and Eric and Randy Micus are all visiting Mrs. Charlie Nesbitt at Walker Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Rene Beard and family will be in Earlton on August 7th to attend the wedding of a nephew and will visit also in New Liskeard with Mr. and Mrs. Murry Welsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stephenson of Kakabeka Falls are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winters.

Mrs. Rose Corrigan of Kitchener, Ontario visited friends over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Cooper of Hamilton were here for the weekend with friends.

Harvey Bedard is with the Windsor Race Track taking jockey training.

Ted Winters and Bob Fummerton have been asked to try out with the Cornwall Royals — Ted is a goalie and Bob a defenceman. cont'd page 13