

Buck's Trip - cont'd from page 5 ...

While in Berlin, in the United States Sector, Clarence attended services in a Lutheran Church, built by Frederic the Great.

The choir and guest took a boat tour of the Berlin Lakes, before they returned to Berlin for a farewell dinner and headed for home.

They found accommodations excellent on this trip, the people friendly and helpful, and in most places, able and willing to speak English, and the meals served were generally good.

Father A. Gvora, of St. Martin's Church, Terrace Bay, another member of the choir, was indeed fortunate in his free time, to be able to attend the Passion Play held at Oberammergau, not far from Munich, Germany. Nestled below the Bavarian Alps, the town of 5,000 presents the Passion Play once every ten years, to an estimated audience of half a million people.

The cast is chosen from the people of Oberammergau, farmers, wood carvers and shopgirls. This year portraying Christ, was Helmut Fischer, a 38 year old lawyer.

Beatrix Lang, a teacher of retarded children is the Virgin Mary and Christl Rutz, who helps her mother run the hostelry, plays Mary Magdalene. In an unforgettable setting continued page 10 ...

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK, FEBRUARY 9TH TO 15TH.

How much home are you missing through outdated wiring?

When this house was built it was hard to imagine all the wonderful ways in which electricity would be serving us today. That's why the wiring in so many older homes just isn't adequate for today's needs.

There are many signs. Fuses blowing. Lights dimming. Appliances performing sluggishly. Cluttered extension cords. Not enough outlets.

So, if you're planning to modernize your home, think first of the wiring. Have a qualified electrical contractor check it. You'll be surprised at how easily and inexpensively it can be updated. The Hydro Finance Plan makes it easy to get started right away. Just ask your Hydro.

The Name of the Game is Electrical Living.

your hydro 