

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Toronto Telegram Syndicate

Edward is a merry young fellow of 20 months — merry as long as he is with people he knows and in familiar surroundings. He takes time to feel comfortable with strangers.

He is a good-looking boy with brown eyes, fine unruly gold hair with red highlights, fair skin and rosy cheeks. He is in good health except for occasional mild bronchitis. His right foot turns out slightly and he may have to wear orthopedic boots for a time.

Edward needs parents who have had experience with children, in a home where he will be the youngest. His adoption home should provide a stimulating atmosphere without pressure, and a great deal of encouraging affection. Since he is extremely fond of animals, a small, gentle, affectionate dog would be an asset in helping him adjust to a new family.

To inquire about adopting Edward please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For general adoption information ask your Children's Aid Society.
